

"JFL Alarmes will participate for the 18th time of EXPOSEC, which is a benchmark for the company in its marketing strategies, where we launch the main equipment for the electronic security market. Professionals of electronic security in general, an event of paramount importance for the segment that grows and is strengthened every day".

Rodrigo Monteiro, JFL ALARMES Marketing Coordinator

"We started in the Electronic Security segment in 2013 and already in 2014, we participated in the first EXPOSEC and all subsequent EXPOSECs. Being at EXPOSEC means guaranteeing the visibility of the brand, it is where we find our clients, we network, we develop partnerships, in short, being at EXPOSEC means for us to be "effectively" in the Electronic Security segment. It is also important to highlight the organization of the event, which has been improved every year. I take this opportunity to congratulate CIPA and ABESE for having managed to include EXPOSEC among the most important events of the sector in the world."

Tatiane Lorenzi, from RADIOENGE

"Bedinsat is an industry that has been in the market for 26 years, with a network of distributors throughout the national territory and countries of Latin America and since we started participating in this event, we realize how important it is for the company to expose the brand and its products. The fair is a showcase where we can gather most of our customers, exchange information, present our new products and establish our partnerships."

Sônia Flores, BEDINSAT Commercial Manager

"The term 'security' is well known to us. Exhibiting at EXPOSEC reinforces our principles and values, maintaining quality in service delivery, through constant improvements and investments. This is an important event for the segment and we need to be present."

Ronaldo Puim Toneloto, Business Manager of PROTEGE Group

"Certainly EXPOSEC 2017 will be an important tool to help companies in this moment of crisis that passes our Country. The fair will be a facilitator for new business."

Gerson Luiz Caparroz Junior, RCG Commercial Manager

"Visibility for the brand, opportunity for launching products and contact with qualified public are the differentials for investment in EXPOSEC."

Adrinei Kaiser, DIPONTO Director

"The participation of Fulltime at EXPOSEC has become more important every year, as well as allowing us to work clearly and with good results with specific clients and prospects of our business, it is a milestone for the company, as we always try to present new trends for the Electronic security market that is constantly growing. Our intention for this 20th edition is to expand our portfolio with quality solutions for monitoring and tracking companies through tools that are becoming more and more fundamental to meet the demand of this market."

Ana Laura Imaizumi, FULLTIME Commercial Coordinator

"EXPOSEC is the main security event in the country. Our clients visit us at the fair in search of news. The contacts we have developed during the event provide us with business all year round. The exchange of experience with visitors results in new developments, always following the market trends."

José D. Favoretto Jr, FOR SEGURANÇA Co-owner partner

"As a fair showcase of the technologies in the industry, we always participate to expose our launches. In addition, EXPOSEC is the key door to opening new businesses and strengthening the brand in the market."

Larysse Guimarães, MCM marketing manager

"We have known and participated as a visitor to EXPOSEC for a long time and, in the last year, when we decided to expand our investments in relation to the market, we asked in our meetings the active and potential customers where they were looking for information and updating about the security channel and Response was the EXPOSEC. Hence our decision to also participate as an exhibitor!"

Walter Marchi Junior, NCO Chief Executive Officer
